

Ruin for Sale in Central Portugal

Ruin in tranquil location with land, olive trees, hidden stream, beautiful views, and nearby amenities.

Description of Property

A large total ruin situated on a flat plateau with sloping terraced land leading down to a hidden stream bordered by trees and ferns.

There are beautiful views of the nearby hills and surrounding countryside.

The property boasts approximately 65 olive trees, 4 orange trees, 1 apple tree and an enchanting water mine (spring) percolating out of the rocks.

Situation of Property

The property is in a rural setting on the edge of woodland, with good access to this secluded but not isolated position.

The unspoilt village of Maçãs de Dona Maria is 1km away with a good variety of shops, a restaurant, cafes, health centre, pharmacy, primary school and a bank. There is also a bustling market every Sunday.
